

The RI Hunter Education Program announces a free course in LAND NAVIGATION

When: April 25 & 26, 2015
8 AM to 4 PM both days

Where: April 25th morning session will be held at the RI F&W Hunter Education Office
1-B Camp E-Hun-Tee Place, Exeter
April 25th afternoon session and April 26th will be held at the Big River Mgmt Area

In this 16 hour course students will utilize map and compass to learn:

- Map reading
- Terrain association
- Point plotting
- Techniques on how to navigate unpopulated areas

What to Bring: A majority of the instruction will take place outdoors at the Big River Management Area so all participants are encouraged to bring plenty of drinking water and any field ready food they may want. Please dress appropriately for hiking conditions to include a minimum of 200 square inches of fluorescent orange clothing (hat). Maps will be provided. Compasses will also be available in limited supply and it is suggested participants bring their own orienteering compass. This workshop is offered free of charge but pre-registration is required.

Course is now FULL. Contact Scott Travers at scott.travers@dem.ri.gov or 401-539-0016 for further information.
